

Weekly News – 8th May 2026

HEADTEACHER'S MESSAGE: A big well done goes to our year 11's who have completed their first GCSE exams in the Hall this week and also to those who completed their last 'Live Lounge', where they sang/performed to their peers at break time. Thank you also for all the book donations to our little library that will go up shortly at the school gates.

Wishing you a restful and productive weekend.

EXAMS GCSE and A-levels exams get into full swing from Monday. Please check the timetable here We wish each and every one of the students all the very best of luck!
